POSITION WANTED

By Hal E. Roach. ✓

MAY 28 1924 ✓

Jimmy Jump is out of a job and is seeking one. While reading the ads in a paper seated in the park he meets a girl who is afflicted with eye trouble. He makes her acquaintance and is invited by her to a masquerade party. Short of money, short of clothes and not having a costume, all Jimmy had was the invitation. But being a resourceful youth he improvises one from the rug, a few skins and he goes as a cave man. Some burglars scenting the possibility for theft, have chosen the house at which the masquerade is taking place for their operations, and circumstances so shape themselves that Jimmy brings about the arrest of the burglars and thus makes himself firmer in the affections of the girl whom he had met in the park.
